

Flash: The International Short-Short Story Magazine

Submission Guidelines

- Flash is one of the world's leading publishers of quality flash fiction. Only the very best submissions are accepted, so you are strongly encouraged to read an issue before submitting work. Go to the 'Flash Subscriptions and Orders' page.
- Flashes must be no more than 360 words (including the title).
- Flashes must not have been published previously.
- You may submit up to 4 flashes for consideration for the same issue. Attach them to a single email. Do not submit stories that are currently being considered by another magazine.
- Text should be single-spaced and in 12-point Times New Roman. Beneath each flash should be the word count and the author's name and contact details (postal and email addresses). In the postal address, please include the country. See 'How to Present Your Flashes' on the 'Flash Submissions: Guidelines for Authors' page.
- Each flash should be saved as an individual Word document ('doc', 'docx' or 'rtf'; not 'odt' or 'wps'), attached to a single email, and sent to: flash.magazine@chester.ac.uk
- In your email, please tell us how you know about Flash.
- Do not use SkyDrive or HeyPublisher Submission Service.
- Contributors receive a complimentary copy of the issue featuring their flash/flashes.
