

University of Chester Diversity Festival 2015 and the National Association of Disabled Staff Networks (NADSN) Conference

4th March 2015

09:30 – 16:00

Kingsway 007

For directions, see www.chester.ac.uk/find-us
(click on the Chester tab and Kingsway Buildings tabs)

This exciting event, which features a range of engaging keynote addresses, is open to anyone who is a member of a Disabled Staff Network in HE or FE and to staff working in HE or FE with an interest in disability matters.

To book your place, click here

Time	Session
09:30	Tea and coffee
10:00 - 10:05	Welcome to the day Hamied Haroon, Chair of NADSN
10:05 - 10:50	Exploding the Myths and Presenting a Positive Perspective of Autism Dr Luke Beardon, Sheffield Hallam University
10:50 - 11:35	Disabled People in Higher Education Leadership Dr Nicola Martin, London South Bank University
11:35 - 11:50	Break
11:50 - 12:35	Mindfulness Dr Karisa Krcmar and Tina Horsman, Loughborough University
12:35 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 14.15	Removing barriers to recruiting disabled people Chris Brill, ECU
14:15 - 14:30	Plenary
14:30	Close of Conference
14:30 - 16:00	A meeting of the members of the NADSN Founding Steering Group will take place from 2.30 - 4pm

