

THE EQUALITY ACT 2010: FIVE-YEARS ON

The Forum for Research into Equality and Diversity, University of Chester in collaboration with the School of Law and Social Justice, University of Liverpool presents a one-day academic conference on the 22nd June 2015.

We are now approaching the five-year anniversary of the introduction of the Equality Act 2010. This has arguably been one of the most important and challenging pieces of legislation introduced in the last decade. As such, it is a timely opportunity to bring together those who are researching and practising in this area to contribute to a review of the implications of this legislation five years on. The conference will seek to undertake a review of the implications of the Equality Act 2010 and encourages contributions from those conducting socio-legal and scholarly research in this area.

The Conference will offer the opportunity to explore the impact of the Equality Act 2010 and to also consider the way in which this legislation will continue in its purpose to promote equality and protect against discrimination into the 21st Century.

Date: Monday 22nd June 2014, 9.30am – 4.30pm.

Location: Binks Building, University of Chester, Parkgate Road, Chester, CH1 4BJ.

Keynote speaker: Professor Sir Bob Hepple QC.

For further information and to access the Call for Papers please follow <http://www.chester.ac.uk/node/28098> or email FRED@chester.ac.uk.