TOP TIPS FOR WINNING EXTERNAL RESEARCH GRANTS
Faculty Research Conference
7th Sept 2015

Prof. Clare Schofield: Associate Dean & Professorial Lead
University Centre Shrewsbury
Katie Nield: External Funding Team Leader, R&KTO
HOW CAN THE R&KT OFFICE HELP ACHIEVE RESEARCH AIMS

• Advice on sources of funding
• Support and guidance on writing applications
• Assistance with costing and pricing principles
• Institutional authorisation and grant/contract acceptance (RO0, RO1 and RO2 forms)
• Help with negotiating contracts and formal university quotation service
• Monitoring and reporting for all internally and externally funded projects
• Register of Reviewers
APPLYING FOR A RESEARCH GRANT: TOP TIPS FOR STARTING OUT

• Allow plenty of time.

• Be aware of your online profile.

• Research the funder and call carefully.

• Pay close attention to word counts and formats of the application.
APPLYING FOR A RESEARCH GRANT:
TOP TIPS

• Can someone review this for you?

• Build your portfolio & credentials as a researcher.

• Explore other avenues.

• Don’t give up.
SEARCHING FOR FUNDING

RESEARCH PROFESSIONAL - www.researchprofessional.com

• An online resource which lists most funding opportunities.
• Staff can log-in on site and register their details to receive funding alerts in their chosen fields.

UKRO - www.ukro.ac.uk

• Information and advice service on EU funding for Research and Higher Education
• UKRO disseminates timely and targeted information on EU funding opportunities to registered users
HOW TO CONTACT US

grants@chester.ac.uk

01244 511063

Follow us on Twitter @UoCRKT